

Lauren Ashleigh Medrano-Children's Choir Assistant Director & Sound Engineer

Ashleigh Medrano is one of the founding members of COACC (est. 2011) and has stepped into various roles over the years, including serving on the COACC Executive Board of Directors as Vice President, Soprano section leader for the master chorale, Assistant director for the children's choir, and sound engineer for our recordings . She has a master's degree in music Industries from CSUN and currently works as a Royalty Analyst for Universal Music Group. Her professional singing career spans from studio recordings and live performances including work as a recording artist for an educational audio company, a featured recording artist in an anime production, and multiple performances at Carnegie Hall.