

Brooke Gorin — Vocal Coach, Children's Choir

Brooke Gorin has been a member of COACC's alto section for four years and brings a lifelong love of singing and teaching to the Children's Choir. Her vocal experience includes five years with the La Jolla Symphonic Chorus, a cappella singing in college, and performing with Reunion Tour, a worship ensemble. Brooke has also taught vocal coaching at a La Jolla summer camp for three years and has worked with private voice students. She holds a degree in Music Humanities, a master's degree in teaching, and a master's degree in American Studies, where she focused on the societal impact of music in the United States. A credentialed history teacher, Brooke brings extensive experience working with young people and believes that great vocal instruction begins with trust and connection. She loves helping young singers develop their technique and expression while discovering their voice, confidence, and joy in making music.
